

Job Description

---

Job Title	Commercial Vehicle Mechanic
Salary	£35,000 to £40,000 per annum
Location	Worcester

About Exsel Group

We specialise in the design, manufacturing and support of non-offensive products and services that protect people from the effect of blast, ballistic, cyber and operational threats. Our background is engineering and architectural industries. Our focus is on the application of technological solutions to security challenges. We are a progressive and forward-thinking group, who work collaboratively across our internationally based business sectors.

Job purpose – Commercial Vehicle Mechanic / Fitter

Responsible for the diagnostic testing, servicing and repairs on HGV, Construction Equipment, Heavy Plant and Military Vehicles.

Job Duties -

- Inspection and Test of vehicle status to assess overall condition of vehicle
- Strip replace / repair units in accordance with work instructions.
- Assess individual components to ensure they are fit for purpose.
- Build and test product in accordance with manufacturer instructions
- Report any faults to the Workshop Supervisor who will advise what action is needed.

Requirement/Experience/Competence/Qualifications:

- Proven experience of repair & maintenance on HGV / Construction Equipment / Heavy Plant and / or military vehicles.
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills.
- Attention to detail and problem solving skills.
- Strong organizational skills with the ability to multi-task, and work under pressure.
- Displays willingness to follow instruction and learn new tasks.
- Knowledge of QHSE Legislation
- Hold a valid driving licence.
- Displays a good attitude towards work, and the aims and objectives of the company.
- Ability to be flexible and work outside core hours on occasion
- Overseas travel and travel to other Exsel group sites may be required occasionally
- Ability to work in the UK with no restrictions and live locally to the Worcester area
- Must meet security vetting criteria

The role will suit individuals currently working as an HGV Mechanic Fitter, Automotive / Mechanical Fitter, Specialist Vehicle Mechanic, Car Mechanic, Fitter. Useful, but not essential would be working knowledge of military vehicles, processes, and FMT 932 inspection criteria.